

Would You Risk a Few Hundred Dollars to Make Many Thousands?

People are making thousands of dollars in oil stocks—even right here in Memphis. But to make this money they had to risk some of theirs—perhaps several hundred—perhaps several thousand. Would you spare a few hundred dollars on a proposition whereby you could make several thousand? The money is to be made in oil—we have leases on land in OIL TERRITORY. This Company issues no preferred stock. This means that you will receive dividends just as soon and as often as the officers of the Company receive theirs. There will be no additional companies organized to divide profits or sell stock. The officers draw no salaries—their profits, if any, will be the same as yours, coming from the earnings of the company. This is not a stock speculating proposition, but an effort to get an oil well. A well will be started just as soon as sufficient stock is sold. We will have enough to drill a second well, even if the first is a failure.

Drilling Operations Will Begin As Soon As Sufficient Stock Is Sold to Enable Us To Put Down a Well

Our Leases Were Selected by Mr. J. B. Harris

All of our leases were selected for us by Mr. J. B. Harris, the man who purchased the leases for the Liberty Oil Company (a Little Rock concern which recently struck oil), and who is also the promoter of other successful oil companies. Mr. Harris has never made a miss yet in selecting leases, and we have his judgment in securing ours.

Bags Negro Prowler But Loses His Garden

Next time T. C. Shaw, 530 Laclede avenue, bags a negro prowler, so he declared Saturday, he is going to shoot him somewhere else than in the garden. Because Shaw was not particular where he brought down a black burglar before dawn Saturday, his vegetable patch in the back yard, the pride of the household, was nearly destroyed.

When the gun went off five negroes with the flashlight did likewise. The burglar, who was shot in the back, fled. Shaw waited a short while, with hopes that the two burglars would come close together, but one negro stood off and opened a flashlight. So he chose the one cutting the screen for the surprise.
